

CHIST-ERA Workshop on Open Science in Transnational Research

Agenda

Date: 6 March 2020

Location: Swiss National Science Foundation, Wildhainweg 21B, 3002 Bern, Switzerland

Main objectives:

- i. Discuss common practices in transnational research and challenges faced by researchers
- ii. Elaborate minimum standards for Open Science based on the current landscape
- iii. Determine the needs in terms of tools, platforms and funding instruments for the implementation of transnational policy

Workshop on Open Science in Transnational Research

Time	Topic	Who
09:00	Registration and welcome coffee
Part I: Challenges, potentials and perspectives of Open Science
09:30	The SNSF and its Open Science policy	Katrin Milzow
09:50	CHIST-ERA and Open Science: Status and goals	Ahmad Zein Assi
10:05	Common practices in transnational research, ICT case and challenges	Emma Lazzeri
10:20	Expectations of researchers from research programme managers	Andrea Cavallaro
10:35	Break
Part II: Policies and measures
11:00	Transnational cooperation for Open Science policies: French perspective	Marin Dacos
11:15	Open Science status in the European landscape	Michaela Kriklánová
11:30	The emergence of minimal European standards for Open Science from a heterogeneous landscape	Mustapha Mokrane
11:45	The EC policy on Open Science	Alea Lopez de San Roman
12:00	Open Science for project managers	Yanis Mimouni
12:15	Break
Part III: Platforms, tools and funding instruments
12:30	Publishing Computational Research and Open Science Publishing	Simon Worthington
12:45	Monitoring the implementation of an open science policy at the transnational level	Euan Adie
13:00	Lunch Break

chist-era

Parallel brainstorming sessions

	Session I: Open Access – policy, platforms, support
14:00	Session II: Open Research Data – policy, platforms, support, reproducibility
	Session III: Policy drafting/negotiation and Data Management Plan for CHIST-ERA

14:45 Break

15:00 Presentation of the results of each parallel session

Perspectives

15:45 Summary and concluding remarks Ahmad Zein Assi

16:00 End of the workshop

CHIST-ERA Open Science Working Group Internal Meeting

Time	Topic	Who
16:15	Debriefing and next steps	All
17:00	End of the meeting	